SINCERE SYMPATHY

Our sincere sympathy to the family and friends of Thomas Joseph King, 93.7, of Medford Lakes, New Jersey who passed comfortably and peacefully at home of natural causes in the company of his immediate family.

Born March 7, 1931, at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Died November 1, 2024 at Medford Lakes New Jersey.

Thomas, (a.k.a. dad, Grandpa Tom, Mr. King, Tom, Kingy, King) is survived by his wife of 67 years, Ann Veronica King (Sharkey), and his children, Janice Smith (Harry), Paul A. (Elizabeth), Martin T. (Mary Jean), Cecilia Marie Questad (Scott), Stephen (Richel), Julia Marie Divney (Brian), along with 18 grandchildren, 3 great grandchildren, and 47 nieces & nephews, all of whom were favorites. He is predeceased by his parents, Samuel Aloysius and Grace, his sons, Daniel and Patrick, his sisters, Dorothy O'Hara, Margaret Hartley, Sr. Mary Kevin King, IHM, and his brothers, Francis X, Samuel Aloysius II, and James.

Thomas, a self-described humanitarian, was born to a Philadelphia family with an 18-generation history in the Schuylkill headwater region of Pennsylvania. He graduated from The West Philadelphia Catholic High School for Boys completing a Science curriculum in 1949. His post-Depression youth influenced his ethos and provided for a cautious approach to most things in life.

Tom enlisted in the United States Marine Corps in 1951 during the Korean Conflict. After basic training at Parris Island, he was sent to serve as a Marine orderly for Navy Capt. Henry L. Miller, (later RADM Miller, who trained the Doolittle Raiders) aboard the aircraft carrier CV-32 USS Leyte for several tours in the Mediterranean. Capt. Miller surely became a significant mentor to the young Marine. His Marine life continued into retirement, where he made several USMC sponsored trips to Parris Island to inspire and encourage new recruits midway through their difficult initial training.

Upon his return to Philadelphia, he enrolled and graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Secondary Education from Saint Joseph's College in 1962. During this time, he met and married Ann. The young couple set up home in West Philadelphia for a year, but were persuaded to purchase a home in Medford Lakes, NJ while on a weekend visit to his brother-in-law Jack O'Hara's summer home there. Tom and Ann have been members of the Medford Lakes Colony for 64 years.

This move to New Jersey was made possible by Tom finding employment at the recently established and newly constructed Lenape High School in Medford. Mr. King would start as a teacher of English and Literature. Upon completion of his Master of Arts in School Administration from Glassboro State College in 1976, he was promoted to Department Supervisor for English & Foreign Language, and finally retiring as Assistant Principal in 1992. He understood the imperfections and limitations of the system he worked in and conspired with like-minded colleagues to strive for the best student outcomes in all things Lenape.

His Jesuit education fostered a devotion to continuously performing corporal and spiritual works of mercy, which will be known only to the many that received the blessings, along with those who participated by his side over many years. He had a special dedication to adult literacy, visiting the sick, and helping the poor.

Tom was a handy and athletic person. If you were interested, he could teach you to camp, cook, paint, light a fire, sweat a pipe joint, hang a door, ride a bike, plant a garden, play ball or chess, write a poem, analyze a book, swim, canoe, hike, drive, and lots of other stuff. Tom was involved in the athletic activities of his many young children and enjoyed coaching and supporting the Lenape Youth and Medford Lakes Athletic Associations, in addition to involvement in all sorts of scouting and community programs. During retirement, he enjoyed his local and extended family, Lenape colleagues, the community of St. Mary of the Lakes church, USMC cohort, and gym connections.

Thomas was an educator throughout his entire professional career, and even during his hospice care, he was still challenging his children and grandchildren to find ways to inspire others in their community. The family is appreciative of the frequent visitations from St. Mary's parish, friends, relatives, and former colleagues during his hospice, and will be forever thankful to the caregivers who respectfully attended to him during that time.

Semper Fidelis.

If you are inclined to donate in his memory, Tom's favorite charities were The St. Vincent de Paul Society of Medford, NJ, and the American Cancer Society.
